Central Camp. No. 16015, was called to order by Consul James A. Moody, Fri-day evening, in Perpetual Building Hall. Five applications for membership were eceived and appropriate action taken.

C. E. Shaw very acceptably filled the chair of worthy advisor in the absence of O. P. Parthemore. The camp was favored by the presence of representa-tives from most of the other camps in the District. Banker Daniel Webster, of West End Camp, gave a talk on "Wood-craft." Banker B. G. Cowles and C. A. Miller, of Talbot Camp, touched upon the friendly contest now on, primarily between Talbot and Central camps, for fective. District Deputy H. H. Millard congratulated both camps upon their activity and stated that Talbot had fifty A applications during the month of April. Messrs. Sutherin, Linville, Downs, Royse and Beck made short talks

After the adjournment of Central Camp the general committee on arrangements for the class adoption to be held May 14 met and received various reports, rep-resentatives being present from six Woodmen camps. It was reported that the number of candidates for adoption would amount to more than was anticipated. A degree team, composed of men from various camps, was chasen for the initiation of the candidates, and satisfac-tory progress with respect to the official program was noted.

Central Camp observes its second anniversary on May 22. This camp was or-ganized with a charter membership of eighty, which has been more than dou-bled during the past two years. It carries upon its membership rolls practically all of the men who joined it, losing very few by withdrawals. Death has not visited the camp and only one member has found it necessary or desirable to re-ceive treatment at the Modern Woodmen Sanitarium at Colorado Springs, Colorado. At present it is one of the most active camps in the District and its mem-bership is said to be steadily increasing. The fraternal organizations of the country observed fraternal day at the Panama-Pacific Exposition on April 22 The Modern Woodmen of America were represented by numerous members from the several San Francisco camps and by delegates from many local camps on the Pacific slope. Director S. S. Tanner was dered at the last box part the representative of the head office, visiting various Pacific Coast camps in the course of his trip.
